

I strongly oppose the proposed rule change that allows further consolidation of media ownership. Too many local radio markets are already dominated by one voice, and the rule change would simply exacerbate the problem.